

Year 4 Medium Term Curriculum Plan for Art 2021-2022

Block	Unit	Key Targets and Learning Objectives	Activities	Artists	Key Vocabulary
1	2D – 3D applications from drawing to model making.	Drawing techniques for developing a 2D drawing into a 3D Ice-lolly mold design. Students will learn how to self -assess and give peer assessment on their first design ideas to develop their work with more refinement. Students will learn and experience the process of vacuum forming their design idea into a 3D ice-lolly mold product in the design and technology department. Students will learn about which plastics are safe to be recycled into other products. Learn about the paper craft artist ‘Yulia Brodskaya’ and take an influence from her work into own Art. Look at the paper craft Artist ‘Ray Besserdin’ and take inspiration from him to influence a piece of own artwork.	Students will learn how to transform 2D drawings of an icecream / ice-lolly into 3D drawings using line and shading to develop forms. Students will reflect on their own first design ideas and annotate what works well and even better if in order to improve their design and presentation of their ice-lolly mold. In small groups students will visit the Design and Technology department to watch how their developed ice-lolly mold design can be made into a real product using the vacuum forming machine. Students will learn and apply the technique of paper craft ‘quilling’ inside a show box lid to create a piece od art inspired by Yulia Brodskaya. Students will combine a painted background wash with a top layer of paper craft shapes to resemble Ray Besserdin’s art style.	Yulia Brodskaya Ray Besserdin,	2D/ 3D, Design and Technology, The vacuum form process, Design development, form, shade, recycled plastics. Paper craft, quilling, shape, positive/negative space, Yulia Brodskaya, Ray Besserdin,