

Year 4 block 3 Medium Term Curriculum Plan for Art 2021-2022

Block	Units	Key Targets and Learning Objectives	Activities	Artists	Key Vocabulary
3	Futurism Art project	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Student has successfully expressed a design idea with clarity in the car of the future coloured drawing including labels to describe specific features. -To have understood how to mix tints and tones using acrylic paints within a futurism car themed painting. - Understands the meaning of a monochromatic colour scheme. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Imagine and draw a car design for the future. -Mix tints and tones using acrylic paints within a futurism car themed painting. - Develop artwork from a previous painting into a paper layer collage to support the futurism art project. 	Luigi Russolo
	Portraits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Discuss and apply the characteristics of Cubism to a Pablo Picasso inspired portrait. -Recognise and identify a selection of Cubism Artworks. -Identify a selection of portraits from the Renaissance art period. -Apply the correct colour scheme to a Mona Lisa watercolour painting. - Explore and recognize a selection of distorted portraits of the Japanese artist Kensuke Koike. -Apply accurate proportion to a hand sketched portrait of a person. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Apply the characteristics of Cubism to a Pablo Picasso inspired portrait using the roll a Picasso activity game. -Students will be introduced to a selection of portraits from different art movements and they will be asked to recognise and identify which portraits belong to which art movement. -Fill in the Mona Lisa portrait with watercolour paint using accurate paint brush control and the correct colour scheme. Apply Kensuke Koike’s style of image manipulation to a selection of portrait photographs. -Demonstrate an understanding of tone, highlight, shading and proportion within a finished portrait. 	Kensuke Koike Pablo Picasso Leonardo Da Vinci	Art movements, Cubism, Futurism, Renaissance period, distortion, Portraiture Luigi Russolo Kensuke Koike Pablo Picasso Leonardo Da Vinci

